

Dear Families,

I am thrilled to share with you the Book of the Month, Goodnight Moon by Margaret Wise Brown, and activities to support your child's communication development.

I am also excited to share with you my website www.acspeechtherapyservices.com. It will provide information about my services in addition to resources and information for you as caregivers of children with delayed speech and language skills.

My website has a link to my Pinterest account which features boards full of activities that coincide with the book of the month, articles providing additional information related to our monthly topic of discussion and information regarding self-regulation, types of play, communication stages, social stages of play and, of course, various aspects of speech and language development. Please check out my website. www.acspeechtherapyservices.com.

In this month's Kit you will find:

1. Articles on the following topics which we will discuss:
  - a. Play Skills
  - b. Pairing Movement with Learning
  - c. Using All the Senses to Learn
  - d. Songs and Fingerplays
  - e. Learning About Time and Space
2. Black and White Vocabulary Pictures – cut and paste, color and match.
3. Paper Plates – use with craft activity on the Goodnight Moon Pinterest Board.
4. Animal Cut-Outs – use to practice different animal sounds
5. June Talking Tips – review of keep the interaction going
6. Goodnight Moon* book by Margaret Wise Brown.

I hope you and your child enjoy this month's selection.

Sincerely,

Wanda Averhart Collins MA-CCC

Licensed Speech Language Pathologist